

Emily is one of the newest Coordinators, joining Family Voice Surrey in 2021. Emily's background is in project management within the arts, education and cultural sector. She is passionate about active participation, engaging directly with families and family learning.

Emily has a young daughter with SEND and has spent several years navigating the healthcare and education systems.

Emily is also a Parent Representative at a Surrey special needs school.

Emily is also a Parent Governor of The Manor Mead and Walton Leigh Schools Federation.